IF YOU'VE COME THIS FAR, THERE'S MORE ON THE BACK.

Anyone working with inmates (or their families or prison guards or chaplains or ...) has to be competent and knowledgeable about the faith. This doesn't mean knowing just your own path; it means having some understanding of other Wiccan Traditions and other neo-Pagan religions to be able to minister usefully to Pagans of other denominations.

Be aware: there are tight restrictions on Tools – for inmates and for Pagan clergy coming in to lead ritual. You have to work without most of the Tools and accessories most of us take for granted and you have to be tolerant of the many strict regulations that govern life in prison. Authority must be respected, and rules obeyed absolutely. Religious volunteers are considered unpaid staff of the D.O.C.

		O INMATES, YOU'LL BE ASKED TO ANSWER SOME SAMPLE LETTERS FIRST. THERE'LL BE TRAINING AND SUPERVISION AS CIRCUMSTANCES ALLOW.
Whatever prompts it,	nobody can leave unti	n a while, Something Happens, and a unit goes on "lock down." I the crisis is resolved. You have to be patient and calm and maybe I to whine or argue about it.
Not only are careful of M.E.M.'s r	there security concer eputation, we have to else we encounter in	ns and legal obligations to consider, and not only do we have to be remember that any of us might be the only neo-Pagan that a D.O.C. our work) ever meets. The reputation of neo-Paganism rests pretty
